Easter Sunday Of The Resurrection Of The Lord

Thoughts On The Resurrection Of Jesus For You By Mary M. McGlone

The Easter Sunday Gospel seems very disappointing. After the blowout of the vigil, today's Gospel presents "good news" of confusion, misunderstanding and at least a touch of fear. Maybe we should let Peter and Paul lead us through the day.

How willing are you to accept and believe surprising and unexpected news?

Marriage Moments And Parenting Pointers: Food For Thought And Actions

Marriage Moments-Easter has come. Hopefully, you've enjoyed some Easter eggs and candy. Perhaps an Easter egg, with its hard shell but soft inside can remind you that in marriage you must crack open your defenses to uncover each other's vulnerability. Safeguard this treasure.

*****

Parenting Pointers-April 22 is Earth Day. Our planet is at the door of the urgent care center. Ask each family member to commit to one act of resuscitation (plant a tree, eat vegetarian, use no single use plastic today...) If half the world population (four billion people) did one action it would make a difference. Even better. Multiply yourself-ask another person to join you.

Living Laudato Si' Eco-Tip Of The Week From The SFdS Parish "Green Team"

Celebrating Easter and Earth Day:

- The Easy One:* Celebrate Easter (April 17) and/or Earth Day (April 22) by honoring new life. Find something that was dead in nature and something that is beginning to come alive.
- The Challenging One:* Search your memory for any actions you've taken this past month to help a person, plant, or animal thrive. Commit to one additional act to reduce a negative impact your lifestyle might have on planet earth next month.

Children's Ministry Team Update

We've miss teaching the wonderful children of SFDS. We are hoping to re-establish our ministry to children, ages 2-7, during the liturgy of the word at both Sunday Masses.

If you have children you would like to enroll, please contact Gail Miller [gailmillers1@hotmail.com] and let her know the names of the children and ages, or your name and Mass time you attend. We have a number of our previous volunteer teachers who are willing to help but could use a few new volunteers. New helpers will be paired with a veteran who will develop and lead the lessons. The only requirement is certification for Safe Parish. The frequency of commitment is up to you. Contact Gail if you can help. We are looking forward to reconnecting.

Vocation Refresher For The Marianist Family

“Chaminade sought to reproduce within the Marianist Family the variety and wealth of experience that exists within the Church as a whole. From the beginning, Chaminade gathered men and women, vowed religious and laypeople, persons coming from all socioeconomic classes... This inclusivity offers us a generous and ‘catholic’ vision for the Marianist Charism.” (The Promise and Path: Starting and Sustaining Marianist Communities, Thomas F. Giardino, SM, P. 11)

How can we express Chaminade’s notion of “one great family” to others considering joining our community? How can we build upon our aspect of inclusivity for young adults discerning?

“Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down by death, and upon those in the tombs bestowing life.”
