The Thirty-Third Sunday In Ordinary Time

This Week's Personal Spiritual Inventory Questions

During this coming week, give some time in quiet and prayer to reflect on the following spiritual inventory questions. May they lead to a helpful prayer and reflection experience.

1. As we begin the month of November, who is a family member or friend in heaven whom you remember and why?
2. As you think about death, how do you feel?
3. What is something society/our culture says will bring happiness and success? Do you agree or disagree, and why?
4. As we anticipate the end of another liturgical year soon, what has happened in the past year that's been hard for you to let go and move on?
5. In participating in last Tuesday's elections, what was a current social justice issue that stirred your heart?

Right Of Christian Initiation For Adults (R.C.I.A.) This Week

This Thursday (November 17) the topic for the parish R.C.I.A. program will be The Church Year & Places In The Church. This session of the R.C.I.A. will discuss and name the seasons of the Church year and their respective colors, symbols, and themes. There will be a tour of our church to locate and talk about the places and symbols in our worship space. All are welcomed to attend. For more information please contact Al Cucchetti at 513/737-0691, or at cucchetti1946@yahoo.com

Marriage Moments And Parenting Pointers: Food For Thought And Actions

Marriage Moments-What's the number one enemy of love? According to relationship coach, Gary Smalley, it's unresolved anger. Since you can't guarantee you'll never feel angry, it's best to work on the other end-resolving it constructively and lovingly. What works for you?.

Parenting Pointers-November is Adoption month. Have you ever considered adopting becoming a foster parent? This may not be your call but you might still mentor a child who needs a little more attention. Remember, Jesus was a foster child.

Living Laudato Si' Eco-Tip Of The Week From The SFdS Parish "Green Team"

Ideas for the reduce use of plastics:

The Easy One: Swap clothing with friends and neighbors?

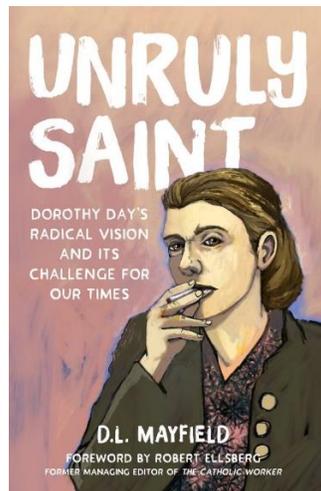

The Challenging One: Reduce microfibers from entering waterways and the atmosphere by washing you clothes less often. Spot clean as needed and air dry clothing. Mend and patch to extend the life of clothing.

Upcoming Programming From Retrouvaille

Thinking about Separation or Divorce? – Is your marriage or that of a relative or friend heading for divorce? Do you know how to save that marriage? Or do you feel helpless? Retrouvaille (is designed to help troubled marriages regain their health. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust, and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. For confidential information about or to register for the September program beginning with a weekend on January 7, 8, 9 2023 call 513 486-6222 or visit the web site at www.HelpOurMarriage.com

A Bit Of Needed Humor

After a brutal mid-term election season, please enjoy this political cartoon most of us can all agree with and would join in placing into our ballot boxes.

They Said It:

We could learn a lot from crayons... Some are sharp, some are pretty and some are dull. Some have weird names, and all are different colors, but they all have to live in the same box.

“We cultivate a very small field for Christ, but we love it, knowing that God does not require great achievements but a heart that holds back nothing for self.The truest crosses are those we do not choose ourselves. ...He who has Jesus has everything.”
