Mary Magdalen House

As we enter the month of Thanksgiving, we thank God for the blessings in our lives. Let us also remember those who are facing hardship and challenge. Mary Magdalen House provides a safe, welcoming place for adults to tend to their personal hygiene needs, have mail and telephone access, and be connected to additional community resources. Those in need can take a hot shower, put on clean clothing, and leave clothing to be laundered. As we enter the winter months, there is a great need for warm clothing, especially among those who are experiencing homelessness.
